Book Introduction

Within the folds of this research, we seek to interpret texts and compare narratives using a meticulous critical methodology, aiming to reveal the discrepancies that have affected biblical texts throughout the ages. This work comes as a comparative study based on the principles of logic and textual evidence, to paint a clear picture of the nature of human writing and its inherent variations. The Almighty Creator has established a clear criterion for distinguishing between His infallible word and all other human writings, as He, Glory be to Him, says in His Holy Book: “Do they not then reflect upon the Qur’an? Had it been from [any] other than Allah, they would have certainly found therein much inconsistency.”

Contradictions in the Bible

First: The mentioned texts

the 1 Peter 2:22 "He who committed no sin, nor was deceit found in his mouth" speaks of Christ, and points to his innocence and perfection.

2.

the Romans 5:12

Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all people, because he sinned.

(Christ did not sin (according to the first text) • But death
- "has passed to all people" because "all have sinned" (according to the second text)

The Concept of the Kingdom: In the Gospel of Matthew, there is much talk about the "Kingdom of Heaven ."

the In the Gospel of Mark, the focus is on "the Kingdom of God : miracles of healing. "

In the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 1:4-8), Jesus heals the leper. In the Gospel of Luke (Luke 12:5-14), the miracle is recounted in different ways , involving multiple interactions.

8. In the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 45:27-46), Jesus says, “ My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” In the Gospel of Mark (Mark 34:15), he says the same thing, but in the Gospel of Luke (Luke 46:23), Jesus says, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit . ”

9. In the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 36:26-46), Jesus prays with the disciples three times. In the Gospel of Luke (Luke 39:22-46), Jesus prays differently and speaks of sweat as “drops of blood . ” 10. In the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 1:28-10), the tomb is open, and an angel tells the women about Jesus’ resurrection.

Machine Translated by Google

In the Gospel of Mark (Mark 1:8-16), the tomb is open . Also, but the description of the angel telling the women about post- resurrection events differs.

11. In the Gospel of Matthew (Matthew 16:20-28), Jesus appears to the disciples in Galilee and the gives them a mission. In the Gospel of Luke (Luke 36:24-49), post-resurrection events

in the upper room and gives them the Holy Spirit.

Galilee after the resurrection.

Of course! Here are some of the contradictions sometimes mentioned in 13. Critical discussions about the Bible, in a style similar to that attributed to the Indian writer Zidni – that is, in a direct, clear style, based on a comparison between texts.
